

SCHOOL VISITS with

Jenni Goodman

2026 LITTLE HORSES

Out in the bay where sailboats glide... Join illustrator Jenni Goodman on a deep dive into art, picture books, and the beautiful conservation success story that inspired Little Horses.

Set in Port Stephens, NSW, this book shares a wonderful, real-life example of the positive impact humans can have on the wildlife and environment around them. Jenni will take you on a magical underwater journey to learn about her picture book making process, seahorses and seahorse hotels.

All sessions are interactive, fun and informative, and include a chance to get creative with a drawing activity. Presentations are suitable for classrooms, year groups, or stages and run for 50 mins-1 hour.
